Education Support Programs

The Departments of Defense, Army, DVA, Labor, and Education offer several education counseling programs to help you decide your academic future. There are also several non-governmental programs designed to help you succeed in your education endeavors. Some of these programs are described below.

Tools to Help Make Your Educational Decisions

- VIA: www.goarmyed.com
A decision support tool that helps you identify your long term career goal, choose a degree plan that prepares you for your career goal and select a “best fit” and “best value” school offering your preferred degree plan.
- TA DECIDE: www.dodmou.com/TADECIDE/
An online tool to support decision-making when it comes to selecting schools, choosing the right program in which to enroll, and making decisions that are aligned with unique personal goals.
- Career Path DECIDE: <https://careerpathdecide.org/>
A decision support tool to help Service members and Veterans identify, prepare for, and become increasingly qualified for employment as they transition military service to the civilian workforce.
- College Navigator: <http://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/>
The interactive site allows you to explore and compare features of different institutions, including programs and majors, degree levels, institution type, and admissions considerations, pinpoint school locations with an interactive map, and export search results into a spreadsheet file format.
- College Scorecard: <https://collegescorecard.ed.gov/>
A U.S. Department of Education webpage designed to assist prospective students in determining which school to attend.
- GI Bill Comparison Tool: <https://www.va.gov/gi-bill-comparison-tool>
The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs' GI Bill Comparison Tool enables users to calculate benefits and research approved programs of study.
- Kuder Journey: <http://dantes.kuder.com>
A one-stop-shop for Service members as they plan, prepare and transition to civilian employment.
- Coalition for College: <http://coalitionforcollegeaccess.org/>
Offers fee waivers for veterans and those currently serving that allows eligible students to apply to most member schools without paying any application fees.
- Occupational Outlook Handbook (OOH): www.bls.gov/ooh
A career resource offering information on the hundreds of occupations that provide the overwhelming majority of jobs in the United States.
- O*NET On-Line: <http://www.onetonline.org/>
The database provides the basis for our Career Exploration Tools, a set of valuable assessment instruments for workers and students looking to find or change careers.

Tools to Help While You Are in School
